A STAFF E-NEWSLETTER JANUARY 9, 2013

PUBLISHING AND ARCHIVES COME TOGETHER TO CELEBRATE TWO PURDUE "MAKERS"

BY CHARLES WATKINSON

January sees two exciting collaborations between the archives and publishing staff in the Libraries come to fruition. Both celebrate Purdue engineers while advancing key scholarly communication objectives in our strategic plan to "continue to build and identify collections unique to Purdue" and "develop and promote new publishing models." First we celebrate the legacy of Charles Pankow (CIVL 1947), father of the "design build" movement in construction and then honor the continuing service of astronaut Jerry Ross (ME 1970), NASA's record-setting frequent flyer and champion of science education.

As a pioneer in innovative uses of concrete, Charles Pankow shaped the development of the modern construction industry and the landscape of 20th century America. His philanthropy also continues to advance Purdue, impacting professors and students throughout the university via the support of the Charles Pankow Foundation. 2013 marks the 50th anniversary of the Pankow Companies and the Libraries are marking this with an online exhibition that showcases the donation of Pankow papers and oral histories to the growing civil engineering collection and a companion book, A Better Way to Build, published under the Purdue University Press imprint as a hardback print and e-book edition.

Jerry Ross also has credentials as a builder, although his career has been above rather than on the earth. Orbiting at 17,500 mph at an altitude of over 200 miles, he was instrumental in the construction of the International Space Station. As well as visiting the exhibit of artifacts and papers from the collection he has donated to the Libraries (open January 7 to February 22), space enthusiasts can download an iPad app or enhanced e-book edition of his autobiography (co-written with John Norberg) which includes videos and additional images from his collection. The book, Spacewalker: My Journey in Space and Faith as NASA's Record-Setting Frequent Flyer, will be formally launched in the shadow of the Space Shuttle Enterprise on the deck of the USS Intrepid in New York city on January 31. Look out for national publicity, such as a recent interview with Americaspace, as we near that date. A preview of what to expect from the book's digital editions is available on YouTube.

As we enter the New Year, Ross and Pankow inspire us with their desire to innovate and their capacity to implement change. They both built great things through partnership, and we look forward to further examples of the types of synergy we can achieve through collaborations between library

Jerry Ross signing copies of Spacewalker.

STRATEGIC GOAL ICONS

You will notice the use of these icons before the article that are symbolic of our Libraries strategic goals.

LEARNING: Libraries faculty lead in information literacy and learning space implementation, research and scholarship.

SCHOLARLY COMMUNICATION: Libraries facilitate and enhance the continuum of the scholarly communication process.

units and divisions in 2013.

LIBRAIRES EXTENDED HOURS A SUCCESS

The Libraries extended hours was once again a huge success thanks to the efforts of our staff. In the photo below Austin Konzen, technology, Donovan Harris, hospitality and tourism management, and Brianna Young, liberal arts, studying together in Hicks Library expressed their thoughts and appreciation of the extended hours during prep and finals weeks.

- We study in Hicks a lot throughout the semester because it is quiet but not too quiet.
- We like being able to talk and share our thoughts without being shushed and we like the background hum of other students studying.
- Hicks is a great place to study, not too quiet and not too loud.
- We need more places like this around campus.
- The Libraries does a great job and thinks about our needs, thank you!

LIBRAIRES NEW STAFF

Joette Hutchcraft
Libraries Business Office

I joined the business office November 19 as an Account Clerk IV. This position has a variety of duties that includes purchasing, processing invoices and reconciling credit card statements.

I moved from Logansport, Indiana where I was born and raised. I spent the last 30 years working in the manufacturing environment; several years in the accounting department before being promoted to Human Resources Manager in 1994. My job ended in March, 2011 due to the closing of the facility. My husband also lost his job, which led to our move to West Lafayette.

Although working at Purdue is quite different from what I have done in the past, I thoroughly enjoy it. Meeting new people has been fun and I appreciate the friendly faces and the willingness of others to help.

In my spare time I like to read, take walks with our miniature schnauzer and spend time with family and friends. My husband and I have four children; three of them live in the Lafayette area, which has been a real blessing.

I look forward to getting to know everyone better in 2013. My office is located in STEW 267 and you can reach me by phone at 49-42894 or by email at jhutchc@purdue.edu.

EVENTS AND EXHIBITS

Biomedical Sciences Information Specialist

Life Sciences Library

Q. What do you enjoy most about your job and why?

A. Everyone says this, but my job is different every day. Some days I am buried in my office, some are all meetings and some days I am out on campus with faculty and students. It's never, ever dull.

Q. How long have you worked in the Libraries and at Purdue?

A. Since August 1, 2006.

Q. What is one unforgettable experience that has happened to you or your coworkers while working in the library?

A. One hot summer day I walked across campus and the only other humans I saw were a class of elementary school kids marching to an unknown destination. One of them turned to his teacher and shrieked, "There's a WOMAN!" Apparently I was the most interesting thing around.

Q. What is your favorite book, website, movie or database?

A. My favorite book ever is The Feast of Love by Charles Baxter. I've pestered at least three book groups into reading it with me.

Q. Coffee, tea, water or soft drink?

A. Cranberry blood orange tea, sweet, hot, and lots of it!

Q. What do you like to do for fun?

A. Garden, read, knit, take my dog Sugar to the Dog Park, cook with my sweetheart Stan, travel — about anything except clean my house.

Q. Feel free to include any information about yourself that you would like to share with the staff?

A. I do at least 30 minutes of yoga almost every morning. When I don't do it, I feel a lot older!
